

Charles A. Donabedian

Mr. Donabedian is Managing Principal of Winston Investment Management, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio.

He also serves as Chairman of Globili, Inc., an early stage technology company based in Cincinnati

Prior to establishing his own company, Mr. Donabedian was President and CEO of USF&G Marketing Services Company, Inc. where he was responsible for new product development, and had five affiliated companies reporting to him.

- . Evergreen Advisors, Inc., a registered investment advisor (Served as CEO)
- . The Octagon Funds, a family of mutual funds (Served as Chairman & CEO)
- . Premium Securities, a Broker-Dealer (Served as CEO)
- . Financial Services Institute: a financial services training company
- . USF&G Healthcare Services Company

Mr. Donabedian is a Trustee of the United States Army War College Foundation, where he serves as a member of the Executive Committee, and is Chairman of the Investment Committee.

He is the Founder and Chairman of The Det 3 Foundation, which provides direct support to combat troops of both the U.S. Army and the U.S. Marine Corps. (www.det3.US)

Mr. Donabedian is a past member of the Board of Directors of Transocean, Inc., (NYSE - RIG) a Fortune 500 company, and the largest offshore drilling company in the world. Mr. Donabedian also served on the board of R&B Falcon Corporation, of Houston, Texas (NYSE-FLC) He was a member of the Executive Committee, Chairman of the Pension Committee, and Chairman of the Employee Benefits Committee, until the company was merged with Transocean.

Other past boards included Reading & Bates, Houston, TX, (NYSE-RB), the Flex-Funds, a privately held mutual fund management company located in Columbus, Ohio. He served as Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Strategic Planning Committee. He is also a past trustee of another mutual fund organization, The Premier Portfolios, where he served as Chairman of that group's Audit Committee as well.

Mr. Donabedian stepped down from corporate boards, to spend more time on his personal interests and charities.

He is a past Trustee of the Cincinnati Council on World Affairs, a past director the American Cancer Society, and a past Trustee of the Kelly Clark Foundation.

Mr. Donabedian earned his Economics degree from the University of Pittsburgh, where he also pursued graduate studies in Semantics and Communications. He is a decorated United States Army veteran, who served with the 101st Airborne Division in Vietnam.